2 Sharfuddin, the petitioner, is the 2nd son of the 2nd wife. He prays for the division of the deceased's pension between him and his brother.

3 The deceased seems to have left behind him the following persons:—

1 Mother — Sharer (1/6th Share)
2 Full brothers } Residuaries
2 Full sisters }
1 Consanguine brother (alleged to be dead) } Also residuary of a remote degree.
5 Consanguine sisters }

4 Of the above, the mother and 2 full brothers and sisters seem, according to Mahomedan Law, to have a claim to the deceased's pension.

5. From the papers received, it cannot be found out whether the mother is living or dead. Neither the petitioner nor the Revenue Divisional officer makes mention of the mother. The petitioner states that his sisters are married and living with their husbands who are in a well-to-do state, but the Rev: Divl: officer states that they are living with the petitioner. The sisters are also getting a pension of Rs 3-8-4 each.

The real point is raised in the office Note. The pension sanctioned to Abdul Ali has fallen vacant. The 5th, his younger brother, claims it partly for himself & partly for his younger brother. Both the claimants are in receipt of similar pensions & the deceased died unmarried.

8 The first point is whether the pension of the deceased should not lapse to Govt. If not, who are legally entitled to shares in it?

9 The Board will study these points in the light of precedents & Madras Rules & thereby put up a Short Note.

Moreover consideration why such pensions should be perpetuated as inheritance instead of strictly ceasing after the 3rd generation.
